Justice Federal Credit Union Announces Special Assistance to Members for Looming Federal Government Closure

Chantilly, VA- Justice Federal Credit Union (Justice FCU) has come to the aid of its Federal government members at the threat of a government shutdown. In the event of a shutdown, the Credit Union announced that it will offer current and potential members a special Furlough Relief loan. Affected current members will also be offered deferred payments on any existing consumer loans or credit cards that are carried with Justice FCU.

The special Furlough Relief loan will allow current and potential members a 0% interest rate for 60 days at which time the interest rate will convert to 4.90%. The repayment term will be 12 months and the maximum amount will be up to $3,000. Loan amounts will be based on the member's net paycheck and require direct deposit with the Credit Union.

"Supporting our members in a time of financial stress is important to us." said Pete Sainato, President/CEO of Justice FCU. "Providing assistance to our law enforcement community is a vital part of our operation." "We were there for our members during the last government furlough and plan to be there for them this time should the government shut down."

Members should contact the Credit Union directly for all requests, eligibility and qualifications.
